February 9th. was our General Meeting. We had a business meeting, followed by lunch and a speaker. This is a great time to become familiar with what Lenape is planning and doing. As usual lunch was delicious and there was plenty. Edie Braginton brought homemade pea soup and Laurie Shuren a homemade beef vegetable soup (recipe elsewhere in the newsletter) - both were outstanding. Thank you to everyone who contributed.

The speaker for the afternoon was Katrene Johnson, from West Jersey Search and Rescue. She told about her experiences on Staten Island in the recovery task of the World Trade disaster. Katrene speaks very well and was interesting. Those who were not there missed an excellent program.

March 16th. was our Annual Awards Meeting. We had more awards to present than usual. Peg Forte makes really nice awards of leather on a wooden plaque. Much time and effort goes in the making. This is something that looks great and is nicer than a lot of "store bought" plaques. Thank you Peg for all the awards you have made for Lenape.

Martha Windish received her SECOND TDX award; Jim Friedl and Kodi earned a T; Lisa Pattison and Murphy and Lacey earned T's (busy girl Lisa); Edie Braginton and Maggie earned a T, and one of our newer members, Megan Robinson and Dillon also earned a T.

Peter Heide received the special award given to one member that did a great job for Lenape. Peter has been getting the use of the fields for our test and certification workshop. Heide's also open their home on those days for Lenape to use and also host the judges. Thank you so much Peter.

Luncheon for the day was chicken, baked ziti, salad and so on. The cooks were Peg Forte and Joanne Mac Kennon. Everything was delicious and plentiful. Everyone that attended was given a "Goodie Bag." Each board member brought something for the bags. Everything from doggie treats to pens were in the "Goodie Bag." It was lots of fun.

Edie Braginton reported that she had been making calls to members asking for help at TED on April 6th. I hope everyone said that they would help. There are 30 participants again this year and about 30 members are needed to help. I hope for sunny skies and a warm day.

On July 13th. Judge Mike Clemens will be here to teach us about conducting a TDX test. This will not be training with our dogs; but how to prepare for a TDX test in May 2003.

I'll see all of you at TED.

SEMINAR- FRESH FOOD FOR A HEALTHY DOG

August 11, 2002

Lebanon Township Municipal Building on Hill Rd. in Glen Gardner, NJ.

Hours - 8:30-4:30.

Cost- $65.00- lunch included.

Deadline- June 15, 2002

This is a one day seminar given by Lew Olsen*, PhD on the following topics:

- Understanding the dynamics of the canine digestive system.
- The history of feeding dogs.
- Understanding how to prepare a raw diet.
- Supplements- their use in diet and special needs.
- A demonstration on meal preparation.

Lew Olsen received her PhD in Natural health from the Clayton School of Natural Health. She wrote her dissertation on canine nutrition. Lew has been showing and exhibiting dogs in conformation and obedience since 1974. She first started feeding supplements in 1980 and began feeding a cooked diet in 1985. After touring several dog food plants, she switched her dogs to a raw diet in 1996. Lew currently owns and shows Rottweilers (Blackwood) and has three generations of Best in Specialty dogs, two with all breed Best in Shows. You can check out her website at www.b-naturals.com

Send Check to Karen Stiff- Carroll, 62 Fairmount Rd. W., Califon, NJ 07830 (908)797-7446
kwrotts@erols.com

No checks will be cashed until at least 20 participants are signed up. If we do not get at least 20 people, all checks will be returned and the seminar canceled. No refunds will be given after June 30, 2002 unless you can find someone to take your place. Lew is coming from Texas and all travel and hotel arrangements must be made in advance of the seminar. The lone organizer is not wealthy. All proceeds are going directly back into the seminar.

Come join us for a day of knowledge!!!!!!

IN THE NEWS.....

Tracking Updates From the AKC website

Tracking is taking on a little different look this year with a couple of showcase events. One event will be the National Tracking Exhibition (NTE) held with the National Obedience Invitational (NOI) June 15 - 16, 2002 in Chicago. The National Tracking Exhibition will be on the grounds of the Governors State University, University Park, IL located 30 miles south of downtown Chicago. The Exhibition invitations will be sent to CT dogs and will include more details of the NTE. The test itself will contain elements of both TDX and VST. Dog/handler teams will be allowed to complete the entire track under the observation of the judges. The judges, Dan Lawer and Pat Norris will provide an evaluation of how the teams dealt with difficult situations.

In addition to the NTE, the Companion Events Tournament to be held in Perry, GA, April 26 - 28, 2002 will also include tracking. As one of the three Companion Events, tracking will be held on Friday (April 26) with entry open to dogs having at least a VCD1 and entered in both obedience and agility. Priority will be given to junior handlers with a maximum of twelve tracks being available. The test will consist of a TD track and will be judged by Mrs. Sandy Ganz and Mr. William (Sil) Sanders.

LTC in the news....

On Saturday March 9, 2002 in the Courier News, the Hunterdon section had an article on LTC.

Written by Susan Guillford, the article was about our Tracking Test last fall. Susan spent both days with us that weekend, asking questions and learned about tracking. Then she had to reduce it down to few hundred words. The article included pictures of Teryl Lebkuecher and her Welsh Cardigan Corgi Cadi Cain. They were the only team who passed at our test. The other photo showed Peter Heide conducting the draw for the tracks.

Susan took many photos and was kind enough to drop off a CD rom of the photos to the Heide's. Thank you Susan for a job well done!

Yodie's TD

You would not find Yodie's style of tracking in the tracking "how to" guide. Speed, not accuracy, is foremost in this dog's mind. He has been described as "More like a run away locomotive than a tracking dog." I guess he figures "why should I put my nose by that dirty ground when I know where I am going and it is easier to run not bending down." I did try to turn Yodie into a more conventional tracker but he didn't share my goal. He has always finished his tracks and brought me the glove so I figured I would do things his way.

Romaine Halupa certified Yodie in February and I entered Oriole Dog Training Club's Tracking Test. We were lucky enough to get pulled. So on Sunday, March 24th, Yodie and I set off for Maryland. Before I knew it, it was time for Yodie to run. The track was going fine until I looked up and saw a dirt road about 10 feet in front of me. "Oh no, this can't be right. I am way too close to that road. Did the whistle blow and I didn't hear it? How embarrassing would that be? I'm glad Bev isn't hear to see this one." I was afraid to turn and look at the judges so I just kept following the dog. He took a turn and his head went down (that was a treat) and in a minute or so he grabbed the glove from the ground and brought it to me. "Whew."

Later, I asked the judges about being so close to the road. Yodie was off of the track but he was air scenting and following the track, just several yards off of it. He had not stopped working and made the turn for the next leg. They were a bit surprised themselves!

Since I have a platform, I would like to thank two people who have been extremely helpful to me. First is Vicky Brown. Over the years Vicky has always had time for my relentless questions and what ifs. Vicky has guided me through a CGC, CD and CDX. Without Vicky, I probably would have quit a long time ago. Thank you Vicky. Next is Bev Olsen. She too has put up with my endless inquiries and bad jokes. Bev has seen me through 2 TD's and if she can put up with me, hopefully a TDX. Thank you Bev.

Tidbits...

Mimi Ruch is very pleased to report that Angus has earned his UD. He completed his title at the New Brunswick Kennel Club show on 3/23/02.

Pat Etchell's cocker spaniel Pippin earned his first Open leg in January at American Spaniel Club with a 192.5 & 1st place. He got the second at the New Brunswick Friday show, with a 191, and the third at Lower Camden DTC with a 191.5 and a 3rd place. He can now be known as Deerhill Upset The Applegart CDX/TD.

Garry Moore's chocolate Labrador Crockett finished his UD title on Friday, March 22 at the New Brunswick Kennel Club show. Crockett also qualified at NBKC show on 3/23 and at Lower Camden on 3/24.

Peg Forte and Hope Meaker's Flat-coat, Deacon has earned two qualifying scores and two first places in the Open Jumper with Weaves at indoor trails, one in February and one in March. We also learned that Deacon was the second Flat-coated Retriever to earn the VCD1 title last year, and the only one east of Ohio.

Lisa Pattison's Aussie Lacey finished her ASCA CDX with a high in trial. She accomplished this on March 16th in the morning, then Lisa came to the annual meeting, collected her dog's awards and returned to the Aussie show for an Aussie club meeting.

Linda Riley wrote to Lenape at the beginning of October, 2001 to let Lenape members know that Molly UDT passed away two weeks ago. She was 16 years and nine months at the time of her death. She was the first Tibetan Terrier in the history of the breed to win a HIT at an all-breed obedience trial. She was also the first Tibetan Terrier to hold both a UD title and a TD - others had previously held one or the other individually but not both. Editors Note: I apologize d to Linda for not having this in the newsletter sooner. It came just as one issue had gone to press and I neglected to remember it for the next one. Mollie was a delightful dog, always happy to see everyone. We will miss her perky personality.

Feeding Considerations When Traveling with Your Dog

By Lew Olson

Many of our dogs are frequent travelers. They often accompany us on vacations, travel with professional handlers or ourselves to dog shows or other performance events. Regardless of the type of travel your dog will be experiencing, there is always the consideration of feeding that needs to be taken into account when planning your trip. If your dog eats a commercial kibble diet, the primary concern is making sure you will have plenty of the same brand of dog food for the duration of the trip. Always be sure to keep the dry food in well-sealed containers for long road trips to protect the food from dirt, and moisture.

If you are feeding a raw or homemade diet, there are some considerations that need to be taken into account. The task of planning and preparing the raw or homemade diet for the road can sometimes seem like an overwhelming task, but it doesn't have to be daunting. It can really be quite simple.

The essential non-food items you will need pack for your trip include a cooler (one you can add ice to or one you can plug into a cigarette lighter in your car or a regular outlet), extra zip lock bags, small plastic garbage bags for clean up, paper towels and utensils for cutting and mixing your dog's food.

Many people worry about packing the food items and balancing the nutrients, but please remember that the main idea of a raw diet is to balance the nutrients over time. When you are planning and preparing your dogs meals, their favorite meaty bones such as chicken necks and backs, pork neck bones or turkey necks can be sorted by meal size and placed into individual freezer bags and frozen in advance. Two to three days of these raw meaty bone meals can travel well in a cooler. Additional raw meaty bones can be found at any grocery store, so know where the local grocery stores are in the area where you will be traveling.

For variety, you can alternate meals with hamburger or another red meat you have either packed or purchased at the supermarket. For more variety, eggs, whole milk yogurt and cottage cheese can also be easily added during a road trip. Don't forget about the canned meal you can provide, too! For a second meal you can give canned mackerel or salmon mixed with either plain canned pumpkin or canned mixed vegetables.

The beauty of feeding a raw diet is that the foods you normally feed your dog are easily found at any local grocery store so you can ensure your dog has a healthy, consistent diet.

Please remember that no matter what your dog is eating, a commercial kibble diet or your own raw natural diet, bring along either bottled water or water from home. Oftentimes, changes in water can cause digestive upsets in dogs. Also be sure to bring your dog's own individual food and water bowls for feeding and try to feed your dog at the same time they are accustomed to eating at home. By providing routine and a few comforts from home, you can help alleviate some of the stresses of traveling.

Some helpful supplements while traveling include:

Bertes Immune Blend: This liver flavored powdered supplement includes vitamin C, a vitamin B complex, vitamin E, selenium and bioflavonoids for antioxidants to help keep the immune system strong during times of stress. It also contains digestive enzymes and acidophilus to help keep beneficial bacteria in the digestive tract and to help stool formation. It comes in powdered form and is packaged in a plastic non-breakable container. It is so convenient. You just add it to your dog's food. They love the liver flavor. It is also a very easy all-in-one supplement to use while your dog is at a boarding kennel or on the road traveling with a dog show handler.

Tasha's Tummy Traveler Formula: This herbal tincture contains ginger, chamomile, peppermint and meadowsweet. This blend helps to fight nausea, settle the stomach and help to reduce anxiety and motion sickness. Give twenty minutes before traveling and repeat in four hours if necessary. Travel Tummy contains no alcohol and comes in a convenient dropper top bottle for easy administration.

Thayer's Witch Hazel with Aloe: A great formula to have on hand for hot spots, itchiness, ear problems and minor scrapes or cuts. The witch hazel helps to stop itching and the aloe helps to cool and heal the area. This comes in an unbreakable plastic squirt bottle for easy application.

Rescue and Relief: This is a "must have" item for any first aid kit. It is useful in helping minimize the effects of any sudden trauma, stress or panic. It is also helpful during any onset of illness. Rescue and Relief can be applied in the mouth with the handy dropper top, on the skin in an area such as the ear leather, or it can be applied to the drinking water.

Other items that are good to include in a first aid kit for your dog include:

Halo Derma Dream: A great salve for irritation and wounds.

Lavender Oil: An essential oil. Apply just a few drops to the tummy and it helps to reduce anxiety.

Willow Bark Formula: This great tincture is a blend of herbs to help relieve inflammation, pain and discomfort. Use only with food.

DOG PET PEEVES ABOUT HUMANS

1. When you run away in the middle of a perfectly good leg humping.
2. Blaming your farts on me...not funny.
3. Yelling at me for barking... I'M A DOG YOU IDIOT!!
4. How you naively believe that the stupid cat isn't all over everything while you're gone. (Have you noticed that your toothbrush tastes a little like cat butt?)
5. Taking me for a walk, then not letting me check stuff out. Exactly who's walk is this anyway?
6. Any trick that involves balancing food on my nose... stop it...
7. Yelling at me for rubbing my butt on your carpet. Why'd you buy carpet?
8. Getting upset when I sniff the crotches of your guests. Sorry but I haven't quite mastered that handshake thing yet....
9. How you act disgusted when I lick myself. Look, we both, know the truth, you're just jealous.
10. Dog sweaters. Have you noticed the fur?
11. Any haircut that involves bows or ribbons. Now you know why we chew your stuff up when you're not home.
12. When you pick up the crap piles in the yard. Do you realize how far behind schedule that puts me?
13. Taking me to the vet for "the big snip", then acting surprised when I freak out every time we go back.
14. The slight of hand, fake fetch throw. You fooled a dog! What a proud moment for the top of the food chain!!
15. Invisible fences. Why do you insist on messing with us? To my knowledge, dogdom hasn't yet solved the visible fence problem!!

Laurie Shuren's Vegetable Beef Soup

Small chuck steak with bone in (around a lb. or less, also can use leftover beef)

small head of cabbage, about half, sliced

1 medium onion, sliced

1 29 oz. crushed tomatoes with tomato puree

1 box frozen mixed vegetables

2 or 3 potatoes, peeled, cut up small

1 T. parsley salt and pepper to taste

egg noodles or small macaroni

Cover meat with water, to about an inch above.

Add can of tomatoes, onion, cabbage, parsley, salt and pepper.

Bring to boil, then simmer for an hour, or until meat is tender and starts to come away from the bone.

Remove meat, cut into bite size, taking off the fat and any bits of gristle, remove bone from soup.

Put meat back in pot, add potatoes and vegetables.

Cook about a half hour.

Add the egg noodles, or small macaroni, following directions for cooking. Egg noodles are great, but you have to add them just before you want to eat, they get "soggy" if left too long in the soup.

This makes a lot of soup, so I usually make it up and freeze it without the potatoes and noodles, adding them after thawing.

Tracking Tests

The information on these tracking tests was obtained from the AKC website. In places where there is information missing it is because at the time the information was taken off the website the information was not available. The information on the website is more complete than what is available in the AKC Events Calendar (the supplement to the AKC Gazette). While we provide this information to help you know about the events, we encourage you to check www.akc.org for updates or contact the trial secretary for a copy of the event premium list.

The Lenape Tracking Club of Central New Jersey was founded in June 1975, for the purpose of assisting people in the training of their dogs in tracking, to encourage sportsmanlike competition in tracking tests and to sponsor educational programs of interest to tracking enthusiasts.

Tracking demonstrates a dogs' ability to recognize and follow human scent, a skill that is useful in the service of mankind.
