COMMON SCENTS

President's Message .....

TED was a great success and I must say "Thank You" to Edie Braginton for all the work she put into the seminar. At the end of the day when she got home and could sit down with a cup of coffee, I'm sure she thought back over the day with good feelings.

Thank you to all our members that came to help the day turn out so well. I know everyone is busy showing their dogs in obedience, agility and all the other AKC events that our very smart four legged friends are doing these days. Thank you again for your help.

The feedback sheet that all TED participants fill out at the end of the day are very helpful and Peg Forte has set them up very well, so it's easy for the chairperson and committee to see where we are strong and where we need work. One thing is definite, we keep the caterer.

The follow-ups are so important and they were very well attended. Remember that each year we give three follow-ups to help the participants along and we need members to help on those days.

July 13th, we are having Mike Clemens come to do a workshop on "How to Run a TDX". We are planning a TDX test in the spring of 2003 and he will talk about all the considerations for our club. We need to know the number of members needed. We will lay a practice track for TDX and watch it run. There are some members that are working on TDX tracks now. Martha Windish has TDX titles on her Golden and Beverly Olsen has A TDX on her greyhound. This program will be of interest to all of our members. Please put this date on your calendar.

Please look at the calendar in the Common Scents to know what is going on in the coming months.

I hope everyone has a wonderful summer and don't forget the July 13th, TDX workshop.

"Keep on Tracking"

Barbara Greenfield

Tidbits...

Karin Damon's Golden Retriever Keebler earn his TD on June 2 at the Mt. Nittany Dog Training Club Test in PA. (See their story on Page 3)

Laurie Shuren's Aussie MeMe earned her CD, finishing it in March, 2002, with a baby lamb in the conformation ring while doing stays!

Lisa Pattison reports that she so proud of her Lacey (Aussie). She placed first in Utility in her first ASCA show.

Peter Heide writes that Mollie attended the TDI (Therapy Dog International) Awards luncheon. HOOT, our liver boy, and GABY (Flat-coated Retrievers) were honored for their work at Pier 94, the Family Assistance Center for the World Trade Center disaster.

HOOT also became a Japanese TV star being interviewed by Fuji Television outside Pier 94. He had fun licking the young lady reporter every time she looked at him. He made her giggle a lot.

COLIN and INCA, his daughter, were honored by Hunterdon Medical Center at their Awards Luncheon for their 100 hours Volunteer Award. We go there every Thursday afternoon for two hours plus of visiting staff and patients.

In another category RILEY, our Irish Red and White Setter was No. 1 in breed in the American Rare Breed Assoc. (ARBA) rankings for 2001. This year in four shows he has 3 Group 1 and a Group 2.

INCA completed her Championship at the Monmouth County KC Show late in May with a 5-point Major also going Best of Winners and Best of Opposite Sex.

COLIN and GABY continue their Agility training and will soon compete in Novice.

Tidbits don't have to be something your dog has accomplished. If you have a funny story or got a great doggie oriented e-mail.... send it on.

If you have a tracking training question perhaps the answer would help someone else. Send in your question and we will publish it and our suggestions on what to do.

Keebler's T

We finally did it! Keebler got his TD on Sunday at Penn State! What a great feeling!

It was a gusty wind and dry ground with the grass well above my knees. The start was up a hill in an area furthest away from the gallery, but heading towards them. He started out great.

Went to the first turn, indicated by circling around to the left as always and then continued toward the right. Zipped down the second leg (I was almost running to keep up!) to the turn, circled again to the left but this time decided it was time to poop!

(Being the courteous dog that he is, he did his business off the track to the left so the judges wouldn't step in it!). As soon as everything was completed he immediately took the turn to the left, once again at a very fast pace.

The third turn was more of the same with no hesitation just the normal circling. At this point I started thinking Oh My God that was three turns, we might just have something here!

We continued on now heading directly towards the gallery, but with the grass so tall he really couldn't see anyone. I thought it was a little soon to be looking for the glove and so did he because he made another turn to the left without any circling.

Now I'm thinking why haven't they blown the whistle, maybe I better start looking, and what if I can't tell if he finds the glove because of the tall grass - but before I could have anymore negative thoughts Keebler found the glove!! He not only laid down on it, but threw it into the air above the tall grass for all the judges to see.

We went back, hugged the judges, hugged the tracklayer, and even hugged the AKC Rep. Sandy Roth said Keebler made it easy for her to judge because the only thing she could see was his big fuzzy Golden tail staying up out of the grass.

The Agony of defeat.....

by Bev Olsen

Bev and her Cardigan Welsh Corgi were entered in a tracking test in the spring. Here's her tale....

We did a wonderful track but failed. You know like the operation was a success but the patient died.

She was tracking her heart out got to the third turn it was right in the middle of a boggy wet muddy area, she tried and tried and could not find it, they blew me off and told me what a great dog she was and how good she tracked showed me where the track went out of the mud.

I took her to that spot and before the track layer could get out to help us we were well on our way made the next turn and right on to the glove. I was very proud of the dog and disappointed that we did not make it but it wasn't because she wasn't tracking.

Forgot the best part, 2 very large dogs took off across the field right towards us as we were tracking. I could hear everyone yelling get those dogs call your dogs, etc. I looked over my shoulder and saw them heading right for us finally the lady they belonged to (a local out walking) not a tracking person called them back. Snowflake never even lifted her head from the track while all this was going on.

FELINE BRAGS

Alice Crans writes about her Birman cat whom some of you have met.....

While many of you know Kiki is a therapy cat, how many of you know she came by her title honestly? Yes, Virginia, there is a Feline Good Citizen (FGC) Test! And a bona fide temperament test for cats?

The Cat Fanciers' Association in concert with Bash Dibra – trainer to the stars, developed the Feline Good Citizen Test. It consists of an evaluation of 1) how the cat behaves when approached by a friendly stranger (kids aren't used...); 2) the cat should allow a quiet, calm stranger to pick it up (no kids), it should be clean with trimmed claws and should be calm when being brushed (except by children) and – the cat must go readily into the carrying case when asked (for this last test I find children are useful).

The temperament test adds that the cat must allow itself to be harnessed (so you can find it when children scare it under a dresser), must remain calm in the face of loud noises, etc (done after the children have scared it under a chair), allows itself to be placed on the lap of a gentle stranger (not a child) and – allows herself to be carried through a crowded room.

Quite seriously Kiki is and does and has passed all these tests – and even after being used each and every week at Pier 94 from September through January (a two week break in there someplace), she is still a warm and loving cat. Talk about crowded rooms! She was carried literally for hours through dense hordes of people and dogs, was jumped on by a keeshond (no reaction) hair pulled out by a child (did try to struggle on that one) and only growled once at a shepherd (who looked like it wanted to share her pouch!).

Both Kiki and Topaz were given an award by the NJ Veterinarians Foundation for their work at the Pier. And both were absolutely wonderful. While Kiki doesn't have quite enough white on her front paws for show, she is one truly exceptional feline. I give you:

Shelhaven's Xena Kahlua Koala, FGC, AATCR
(Animal Assisted Therapy – Crisis)

Special Accomplishment

2002 – Kahlua was placed in the Hall of Fame in the Special Recognition category for her extensive work at Pier 94 in NYC after 9/11 by the NJ Veterinary Foundation. Kiki was one of only three cats to serve at any of the centers, and was the only one to participate from the beginning to the closing. Kiki was also cited for her efforts by Commissioner O'Keefe, Mayor Guiliani's representative in charge of the Family Assistance Center.

The institutions Kiki has worked in include:

Hospitals:

Runnells Hospital in Berkeley Heights (regular visitor)
Beth Israel Psychiatric in Passaic

Nursing Homes:

Holly Manor Nursing Home (regular visitor)
Green Brook Manor Nursing Home
Independence Manor at Hunterdon (Assisted Living)

Kiki has also worked with children:

Women's Crisis
Pier 94
St. Patrick's Day Parade, Woodbridge

Kahlua was also featured in the Miami /Dade Cat Fanciers Newsletter, the National Birman Fanciers Newsletter, and has been a guest on Dr. Brian Voynick's television show, Pet Stop.

You Know You're Owned by Your Pets When.....

You have a mental list of people you'd like to spay or neuter.

You stopped at a house with a "Free Puppies" sign in the yard to have an Educational "Chat," and your kids had to post your bail.

Running out of paper towels is a household crisis.

You not only know all the characteristics of a good "stool," you discuss them at dinner.

You not only allow pets on the couch, guests have to sit on the floor because the dog has "territorial issues."

You've forwarded more warnings about the dangers of chocolate, onions and mistletoe than the National Centers for Disease Control has issued about anthrax and smallpox.

You wear white year 'round, not because you are flaunting a fashion law or belong to a religious sect, but because you have a Dalmatian, Great Pyrenees, Samoyed or white Persian at home.

The world would never guess from your "dog or kittyspeak" posts to e-lists that in reality you are chairman of the IBM corporation.

Vacuum cleaners in your household don't just die, they go out with more smoke and noise than the Taliban.

By the time you investigate different flea control products, their advantages and potential risks, natural versus chemical methods, and study the life cycle of the flea, any fleas have died of old age.

For relaxation, you went mall hopping with your girlfriends. Your eyes glazed over when you saw a sign in front of a pet shop, "20% Off All Puppies & Kittens," and you slapped three security guards before they got you safely contained in the manager's office.

You spend eleven months of the year preaching an appreciation and understanding of canine behavior and the nature of the dog, then you stick fake reindeer antlers on the dog and photograph him for your Christmas Card.

People are still talking about your spay-neuter holiday greeting from last year, "Deck the Halls with Balls of Collies."

Not only do family and friends think you go overboard with doggie holiday decorations, they've never seen a nativity scene where the holy family is depicted by Dobermans.

"In order to keep a true perspective of one's importance, everyone should have a dog that will worship him and a cat that will ignore him."
